Relax...into the quiet intimacy of an early 1900 restored farmhouse located in a pastoral setting in the central part of the Door County Peninsula. The Inn at Windmill Farm, featured in Door County Magazine and the Wisconsin Trails Magazine, is situated on ten acres with the original barn, well house, windmill and orchard.

The award-winning Inn at Windmill Farm provides you with a step back to a gentler time. The rooms are all air conditioned and a guest telephone is available in the library. In keeping with the quiet atmosphere of the inn and to make your visit relaxing and peaceful, television is not available. Windmill Farm is located within easy reach of all Door County offers and our goal is to make your stay one of your best experiences ever.
